

Interview for International Applicants

Regardless of the residence status, international applicants must take an interview. Interview methods differ between educational organizations, so please check the interview methods listed on the next pages. Furthermore, the interview process is as follows.

【Interview process for international applicants】

Select the course you want to take from the "Course List (For Graduate Programs)" and check the educational organization where you will take the interview. The educational organization where you will take the interview is as follows.

○Applying for the first time as a credited auditor (graduate program)

You need to take an interview by the educational organization which you will be applying for course credits most.

○Enrolled in the past as a Credited Auditor (graduate program)

Please contact the Division of Educational Renovation Support (gm.kkikakugrp@un.tsukuba.ac.jp) in advance. We will inform the educational organization where you are doing the interview.

Check the interview methods listed on the next pages.

«Interview date is after the application period»

Apply after checking the Application Guidelines. (Must arrive within the application period) The Interview Form must be submitted along with the other application materials.

Interview (The Interview Form is not required because it has been submitted at the time of application)

«Interview date is before the application period»

Bring the Interview Form and take the interview. Please submit the Interview Form to the interviewer.

Apply after checking the Application Guidelines.(Must arrive within the application period) The Interview Form is not required because it has been submitted at the time of the interview.

●For all credited auditors (graduate program), acceptance will be decided for each course by "Document screening and interview" or "Document screening". The selection method varies depending on the educational organization where the course is offered, so please check the "Selection Methods".
